Please take the A1237 northern York ring road turning off the A64, at the roundabout take your first left which is signposted towards Askham Bryan. Please then take the very next turning right which is for Mill Lane (it is more of a track than a road). Then take the next turning right for Tower House (the building is situated under a water tower) you will see our logo displayed on the entrance board.

When arriving into our offices please park in a designated Mosaic Events bay to the right hand side of the building. If these are occupied then please park in any free unmarked or visitor space.

After parking please walk down the path at the right hand side of the building follow the path around and head to the bottom left hand side of the garden you will see our door bell and logo. Please ring and we will come and meet you.
